

The Singing Organ-Grinder: Sample 45-Min School Programme

| Title  | Language | Description  |
|--|----------|--|
| Bananas  | ca/en/nl | Mambo, the conductor wakes up  |
| Hello  | es       | Brief presentation of organ and organ-grinder  |
| Cool water   | en       | A horse walks through the desert looking for water. The children start to take turns to grind the organ.   |
| Daisy belle  | en       | Waltz about couples on tandems. The children conduct with Mozart, and sing, if they know it and/or dance if circumstances permit   |
| Appellation contrôlée  | en       | A song that is almost French.  |
| George is my horse   | en       | Another horse, with child on coconuts.   |
| El dilluns jo no treballo(I don't work on Mondays), vocals start 00:17, melody | ca       | The organ-grinder falls asleep, with kazoo, in a Valencian song from the early 20th century:El dilluns jo no treballe,el dimarts a pendre el sol,el dimecres me prepare,per a descansar dijous,el divendres trac els comptesp'al dissabte anà a cobrari el diumenche com es festa ¡leré!jo no pense ¡leré! treballar,i el diumenche com es festa ¡leré!jo no pense ¡leré! treballar. |
| Demonstration /One-note samba  | es       | How the street organ works, with human and mechanical versions of Jobim  |
| Los cochinitos (The piggies)   | es       | Three little piggies dream of a better world   |
| I know an old lady   | en       | Action song: Grandma eats a fly, a spider, a duck etc  |
| Tulips from Amsterdam / Aan de Costa / Amsterdamse grachten  | nl       | Dutch waltzes, for dancing   |
| Tea Samba  | en       | Ghanaian radio ad from the 50s for tea, with a mad dance   |
| Goodbyes   | es       | Goodbyes   |

|                                  |  |  |
|----------------------------------|--|--|
| In reserve: birthday/TVstuff |  |  |
|----------------------------------|--|--|